WEEKENDER SELECTION PROCESS

1. Weekenders are accepted from grades 10-12.

- a. Seniors may attend through the summer after their high school graduation.
- b. Freshman will be accepted on a space available basis only and not before the April TEC of their freshman year. Upper classmen will receive priority.

2. Applications will be received beginning the day after completion of the previous TEC weekend.

3. Applications are selected based on the following selection criteria:

- a. Any TEC weekenders who applied for the last TEC weekend and were placed on a waiting list receive first priority.
- b. Any TEC weekenders who had applied for previous weekends but were not accepted or were unable to attend.
- c. Applications are dated according to the postmark, and the earlier applications receive priority.
- d. Weekenders are limited to eight from each high school until two weeks before the weekend at which time additional weekenders from each school may be accepted if there is space available.
- e. The following people may receive special priority:
 - 1.) Those weekenders who have only one more chance to attend a TEC (high school senior, those moving out of the area, etc.).
 - 2.) Those weekenders who are recommended by their pastor or youth director as ones that would benefit from attending a particular weekend for valid reasons.

4. Applications and payment should be mailed to:

Southern TEC
Leon Gregg
2411 24th St. NW
Rochester, MN 55901

5. Acceptance letters are mailed starting four weeks prior to the weekend.

- a. Weekenders will not be accepted for a weekend after Wednesday evening immediately prior to a weekend. Any weekender on the wait list will be notified if they are accepted by 9PM Wednesday immediately prior to a weekend.
